

Richard Rathgeber

DOs and DON'Ts in Myanmar

Doing the right things will please the locals and help you set up a happy relationship

Example 1

These tourists show their friendly feeling and deep appreciation of Buddhistic custom.

Example 2

With a tricky grinning at the native woman this tourist persuades her to let him take a picture of her (left side); in consequence he destroyed the natural modesty of this hill tribe woman – she became conceited and began to look into a mirror (right side).

Example 3

Example 4

This German woman shows the use of a handkerchief to the native children and teaches them to blow their nose (left side) – a laudable contribution to development aid. – Another German tourist tried to take photographs of the young monk while he was reading a book in the schoolroom so that the irritated boy was compelled to threaten with a pistol (right side).